Here we are coming up on January, December was busy as always. My first night in the east was an honor. At the first sound of the gavel I was sure nervous, however looking out at all of my brothers knowing they were there to support me and the lodge I became relaxed and down to work.

December started with our children's Christmas Party. I want to thank Patrick Connor for his work on putting this together. His elves were there to support him to make this another success. While the party was going on Bro. Mike Cunningham and the class of 2013 aided the people from CHIPS. We had 14 children take part in the sign up. Mike thank you to your class thanks, this is a valuable program that protects our children. Of course, Santa came and greeted the kids and passed out his gifts. I just don't know how he has the time at this time of the year.

On December 14 Harmony hosted our ladies at Chelo's again Bro. Mike Cunningham headed up this dinner for the ladies. I also want to thank my stewards Sr. Steward James Hopper and Jr. Steward Robert Izzi for being the greeters. Thanks you to my wonderful, wonderful, wonderful wife Cher for arranging the gifts and center pieces. (Get it Mike) Jennifer Mello provided song and fun for the ladies.

On December 21st many of our brothers visited our ladies and sick and shut in brothers. Jr. Warden Al Anton did a great job looking up some of our brothers that may have been missed in the past. My thanks go out to Al and all of the members of Harmony that made the time to do these visits.

January will also be busy. Our regular meeting on Jan 7th then we travel to the Cap on Jan 17-19 which is always fun. Don't forget that your final payment is due at the Jan 7th meeting. W Steve Charron will be glad to take the checks. At the end of Jan we will have our EA Degree for the new class.

Cher and I wish that all of you had time to spend with your family during this Christmas season and all have a Happy and Joyful New Year.

Fraternally yours
Edward J. Diggle
